

TARIFF PICTURES.

According to the Free-trade Tariff on copper is a flagrant robbery. In 1890 the country produced 7,200 tons of copper. The Tariff brought the domestic product up to 145,170 tons in 1892, but brought the New York price down from 22 1-4 cents a pound to 11 1-2 cents in the same time. That would seem to be a very profitable form of robbery.

THE NEW VERSION.

Washington Post.—"A public office is a private scoop," is the latest Massachusetts version.

A FABLE.

Chicago Mail.—President Cleveland's Civil Service reform is like the snake in Ireland—there isn't any.

A KENTUCKY STILL.

Memphis Appeal-Avalanche.—The search of the Kentucky Colonel for an office seems to have degenerated into a still hunt.

WAITING FOR THE AX.

Toledo Blade.—It is now surmised that Mr. Olney is waiting to begin the work of trust smashing until Mr. Maxwell is through with the ax.

UNDER A DELUSION.

San Antonio Express.—Will somebody please send a prepaid dispatch to President Cleveland correcting his impression that Massachusetts is the banner Democratic state?

DOOMED.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—The "free breakfast table" is doomed. The duties on tea, coffee and sugar, which the Republicans abolished, will be restored by the Democrats.

HOW DEMOCRATS REWARD HONESTY.

New York Press.—At the city election in Portland, Me., a few weeks ago, such bare-faced frauds were committed in behalf of the Democratic ticket that the Democratic candidate for Mayor, who was declared elected, refused to accept the office. The act was so honorable that it was universally commended. Such conscientiousness, however, was construed by local Democratic politicians as nothing less than treason and at a second election the other day, when the same gentleman ran again on the Democratic ticket for Mayor, they turned against him and completely swamped him. The moral is obvious.

THAT bright and entertaining comedy, "Single Life," will be given at the Opera-house Wednesday evening, May 3d. The company is composed of our best amateur talent, and no effort will be spared by those taking part in the play to make it a success. Tickets on sale at Nelson's. Admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents.

THOMAS R. JAMES, V. S., after a thorough two years course at the Ohio Veterinary College, where he recently graduated with high honors as a member of the class of '93, solicits the patronage of the people of Maysville and Mason county. Terms reasonable. Office at Wells & Bigler's livery stable, Market street, Maysville, Ky.

AFTER being "dry" for upwards of seven years, the "wet" of Lancaster, Ky., have succeeded in having an election called under the new Constitution to take the sense of the voters of her magisterial District as to whether liquors shall or shall not be sold there. The fight promises to be one of the hottest ever held in Garrard county.

THE Hopkinsville News Era protests indignantly against the wretched provision made by Christian county for the care of its paupers. The poorhouse is located "on the poorest hill in the poorest part of the county." The keeper is paid $8 a month for each pauper. The unfortunate are housed in log huts with cracks in the walls and holes in the roof. A visitor found a half-clad woman, prematurely old, hovering over an infant, three weeks old. An old man lay dying in a room described as so filthy, foul and revolting that there is not a stable in Hopkinsville that is not more cleanly and comfortable.

Mayor's Court.

William Hutchinson of California, O., and Laura Martin were fined $5 and costs by Mayor Pearce yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. They had engaged a room at Mrs. Wood's boarding-house and were preparing to spend the night together when arrested by Officer Medlin.

PUBLIC LEDGER

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1893.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

A. N. Huff and Charles Collins were in Vanceburg last night.

Mrs. John Geis, son and daughter of Cincinnati are visiting Mrs. Geis of Sixth street.

Rev. D. P. Holt, William H. Cox, W. B. Peacor, Thomas A. Davis, Charles H. Smith, Albert N. Huff and Charles J. Collins came down from Vanceburg this morning.

HAWAII TO COLUMBIA.

Across from far Hawaii, over sunny, rippling seas, Comes a Nation's pleading message, borne upon the Western breeze: "Kindred hearts will beat together, in spite of sundering miles; Make a corner at your hearthstone for a Sister of the Isles."

"You planted here the little germ from which our growth has sprung; Our hopes to you from first to last with constant faith have clung; We've thrust aside, as freemen must, a rotten, crumbling throne; Stretch out your arms and take us, for we cannot stand alone."

"We're but a little handful, and, though stout and brave of heart; Know we are without the numbers to act a Nation's part; But we'll grow to lusty statehood, if we're once beneath the flag—When that flag heads the column, we'll be the last to lag."

"Here are scenes of softest beauty, here are sights of awe sublime; Here from year to year unending is a perfect, Here the sick, and worn and weary find health, and rest and peace; In these Islands of the Blessed, when the sounds of conflict cease."

"We hold the key of commerce of all the Pacific; We hold—for wars upon the earth have surely not yet ceased—The one and only harbor for a hostile naval post. Whence fleets of swarming cruisers may ravage all your coast."

"Will you drive us to Great Britain, which, longing, watching, waits In diplomatic silence the decision of 'the states?' She will not cross your purpose, if you dare to make it known; But she never loses chances, and she's watching for her own."

Already, 'neath the Stars and Stripes, in peace we've learned to rest; Already, in our hearts and homes, we count it first and best. May that flag float again, and soon, above our sea-girt town, With no hand at the halibards again to pull it down!"

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER it will be;
Unless Black's shown—no chance we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

THE MARRIAGE ALTAR.

NUPTIALS OF DR. SMOOT AND MISS LILLIE THOMAS.

A Beautiful Wedding at the Central Presbyterian Church—An Occasion to be Long Remembered.

The marriage of Dr. Gordon Smoot and Miss Lillie Thomas last night was fraught with much interest for Maysville people. Both have for years been favorites in society, and nearly all social gatherings have been brightened by their presence.

The Central Presbyterian Church was crowded to its utmost capacity by friends of the couple, and in this spite of the fact that the most threatening of weather prevailed outside. A profusion of flowers and plants was becomingly arranged about the altar, and the interior of the church presented a handsome appearance.

The four ushers were Province M. Pogue of Cincinnati, Louis G. Smoot, brother of the groom, Harry B. Owens and Harry H. Barkley.

The attendants were Miss Lillian Smoot, sister of the groom, Miss Lolla D. Thomas, sister of the bride, W. E. Smoot, brother of the groom, and C. Edward Geisel of this city.

Like all bridal parties, of course, this one was a little late. It was some time after the hour of half past 7 when it was whispered about over the expectant but patient throng that they had arrived at the threshold of the church.

After the immediate families had been ushered in and seated, the organist, G. W. Blatterman, received the signal and the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's time-honored wedding march soon filled the room. The ushers heralded the approach of the bride and groom. They entered by twos and passed down different aisles. Messrs. Owens and Pogue to the right and Messrs. Smoot and Barkley to the left. They were followed by W. E. Smoot and Miss Lolla Thomas and C. E. Geisel and Miss Lillian Smoot, who, like the ushers, passed down to the altar by opposite aisles. Dr. Smoot and Miss Thomas entered the church together. The party was prettily arranged at the altar, and the picture was charming to the view.

Rev. W. O. Cochrane, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, advanced to meet the bride and groom, and the ceremony was performed in the prettiest manner possible.

The bride, always admired for her beauty, was exquisite in her bridal robes, and her lady attendants, in their white garments, were scarcely less charming. All carried flowers.

Waiting carriages conveyed the bridal party to the residence of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Thomas, on West Third street, where a reception was held, to which the relatives and most intimate friends of the bride and groom and their families had been invited. Dr. and Mrs. Smoot left on the steamer Telegraph later in the night. Their tour will include Cincinnati and Louisville. They will be absent a week or ten days and on their return will reside with Mrs. Holton on West Second street.

The wedding was unanimously pronounced one of the prettiest in the nuptial history of Maysville. Every feature was a source of admiration. The marriage of Dr. Smoot and Miss Lillie Thomas will always be remembered by those who witnessed it as one rare in its attractiveness. To those in whom the inception of happiness born of love inspires an appreciation of the beautiful, such scenes are always inviting. This one was doubly so.

The groom is one of the most genial of gentlemen—pleasant and agreeable upon all occasions. He is courteous and manly and his companionship is enjoyable to the possessor. Professionally, he is capable and proficient. Among the younger physicians of this city his position is a prominent one. He is an apt and accomplished scholar, a graduate of Center College and of the Homeopathic College of New York City, and his social nature is most engaging. He has been practicing medicine in Maysville about five years, previous to that having been located at Flemingsburg. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Smoot of near Fern Leaf, this county. He is a good fellow and has as many friends as any man you meet.

Miss Lillie Thomas has been one of the reigning belles in Maysville society. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Thomas, with whom she has made her home. She is noted for her beauty, her gentle disposition and charming manners. She has been very popular and her friends will rejoice in her happiness.

THE LEDGER extends hearty congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Smoot.

"A WOMAN'S DEVOTION."

MRS. JANE MORRIS has been granted a pension at the rate of $8 per month, dating from May 1st, 1891.

COLONEL ROBERT INGERSOLL will lecture in Cincinnati next Sunday evening on Abraham Lincoln.

MRS. EMILY AUSTIN died at her home in the Fifth Ward, shortly before 8 o'clock last evening. She was 73 years old and had been in feeble health for some time. She was the mother of William and Bruce Austin of this city.

VANCEBURG CELEBRATION.

The Oddfellows of the State of Lewis on Dress Parade.

The Oddfellows of Vanceburg did themselves proud yesterday.

It was the Seventy-fourth Anniversary of the Order, and by invitation a number of Concord, Tollesboro, Manchester and Maysville brethren were present in the beautiful Capital of the State of Lewis.

The program provided for a parade at 2, speaking at 3, work at 7 and a banquet at 9 p. m.

Even the downpour of rain did not dampen the devoted Oddfellows sufficiently to break into the arrangements, and the program was carried out to the letter, though the parade was not as large as it would have been under more favorable weather conditions.

At 3 p. m. the Courthouse was filled, a large number of ladies being present.

Short addresses were made by Rev. D. P. Holt, Thomas A. Davis and William H. Cox, all of this city, and Hon. Samuel G. Hillis, who also acted as master of ceremonies.

In the evening two members were added to the Lodge by initiation, and at 9 o'clock the dining-room of the St. Charles presented a handsome picture, with the banquet-laden tables garnished about with bouquets of beautiful ladies.

Landlord Armstrong was untiring in his efforts, and every guest went away delighted—and one or two left their hearts behind.

Great credit is due the Vanceburg Brothers for the success of the celebration.

"A WOMAN'S DEVOTION."

WILLIAM ALEXANDER will leave to-day for Saginaw, Mich., in charge of a horse that Dr. C. C. Owens sold to parties at that place.

REUBEN HOLLIDAY, aged 18, was hoisting a ladder at his home this morning when it fell and caught him underneath. He was hurt internally.

THERE will be a meeting of Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., in its hall to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock for the object of formulating Decoration Day exercises. The Sons of Veterans and the Women's Relief Corps are invited to attend.

THE Circuit Court at Bowling Green has decided that S. R. Smith owes J. G. Smith $5,000 for violating the scriptural command, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife." J. G. is a cousin of S. R., and some time ago the latter eloped to Texas with the former's wife, leaving a wife and children of his own behind. Five thousand dollars is a princely price for the affections of such a woman.

JAILER KIRK received a telegram last night from the Sheriff of Powell county stating that a man had been arrested and was held at Stanton, answering the description of Estill, one of the prisoners who recently escaped from the jail. Mr. Kirk immediately forwarded a photograph of Estill. Powell county was Estill's home and Jailer Kirk is very much in hopes the right man has been captured.

The Hoosiers Want the Best.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop of Portland Mills, Ind. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it? Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

Real Estate Transfers.

John J. Kilpp and wife and others to Maria Lane, a lot on the Fleming pike; consideration, $125.

Waller Small's executor to Eneas Myall, 8 acres and 6 poles in or near Mayslick, also half of a small lot in Mayslick; consideration, $3,000.

Hannah M. Mullins to Edward P. Browning, lot fronting 265 feet on South side of West Third street; consideration, $2,000.

Maysville Carriage Co.

Having just received a carload of Deering Steel Frame Improved Blinders and Mowers, with a large quantity of binding twine and a carload of the genuine Owensboro Wagons, we are prepared to offer pleasing inducements to any and all persons who contemplate purchasing any of these goods. Therefore, we extend a special invitation to all to inspect these and also a large and most superb line of carriage work. Nos. 120 and 122 West Second street, Maysville, Ky.

A Popular Remedy for Colds.

J. B. Copeland of Meyersdale, Penn., who has been engaged in the drug business in Kansas, New Jersey, Florida, New York and Pennsylvania for the past nineteen years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best selling cough medicine I have ever handled." People who use this remedy are so much pleased with it that they recommend it to their friends and neighbors. There is nothing better for a cold. It relieves the lungs, preventing any tendency toward pneumonia. It is also a pleasant and safety medicine for children. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

Great Event in Cincinnati.

The new City Hall which has become the pride of Cincinnati, rivaling the Art Museum, Zoological Garden and even the Music Hall, is completed and will be formally dedicated May 13th, the oration being delivered by Hon. M. E. Ingalls.

The event will be celebrated by a great street parade, which Cincinnati excels in, besides the police department and the civic societies of Cincinnati and the United States troops at Fort Thomas will join in the procession.

MT. OLIVET.

Tuesday morning about 5 o'clock, during a thunder and lightning storm, the house occupied by John Hamilton and family near this place was struck by lightning. Mrs. Hamilton was sitting near the kitchen stove with her feet upon it. The current ran down the chimney, tearing her shoes from her feet, driving a nail into one foot and shocking her terribly. Medical aid was summoned and she is recovering.

At 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon Esquire James E. Brown of this place died very suddenly of heart failure. Mr. Brown was about 55 years old and to all appearances in perfect health. He was working in his garden when the attack came upon him. He walked into the house, sat down and died, all within a very few moments. Esquire Brown was at one time associated with the late John C. Pearce of Maysville in business; also with John Cumbers, now in Kansas. He has served several terms as Magistrate. The burial was at New Cemetery yesterday morning.

SARDIS.

Mrs. Joe Jones is still very poorly.
Mrs. G. W. Dye is not in good health.
Ollie Reed lost his fine stallion last week.
L. A. Bratton is improving his dwelling-house.
Miss Katie Wightman is home from school on a visit.
Miss Cora Bratton is visiting friends in Flemingsburg.

The fruit here is still living, but we suppose it has to be killed yet. Some of our old men say it always gets killed if it blooms in the dark of the moon.

Henry Gault is now living with his family near Shannon.

Recently the clothing of Mrs. Frank Tuel caught fire and she came near being burned to death.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church at this place every evening this week. Quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Boring, the Presiding Elder, will be present. All are cordially invited to the meetings.

Sardis has for some time been overrun with agents. They are hard on the patience of the people. Job would have been robbed of all his glory if he had met a life insurance agent, a building and loan association agent, a sewing machine agent, a book agent or many other kinds of agents. His patience would have given away—he would have sinned with his lips. To be covered with sore boils—and whoever saw one that was not sore—from the crown of the head to the sole of the foot and to sit in the ashes and scrape one's self with a potsherd is a small matter compared with being bored by an agent. Any good man could have borne Job's affliction without murmuring, but I fear Gabriel himself, if he should meet one of our smooth talking agents—and all of them are fluent speakers—would sinned in his heart if not with his lips.

CLAIMS amounting to nearly $18,000 have been filed against the estate of John A. Thompson, who hanged himself near Mt. Sterling last month. The estate will probably pay seventy-five cents on the dollar.

Mothers' Recommendation.

We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say that it has broken up bad colds for our children—Centerville (South Dakota) Citizen. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY never uttered an uninteresting word, and his quaint character sketches in verse have won him lasting fame. A great poet, he is still greater as a reciter of his own lines, and whether it be for pathos or fun, an evening spent with Riley will always be one of the bright spots in the life of each person who hears him. He is thoroughly American, and he deserves the earnest patronage of every man, woman and child in this community. At the Opera-house next Monday evening. Seats at Nelson's.
